

I am writing to state my dissatisfaction with the potential for weakening the do-not-call list. I find it very disrespectful to the citizens of Indiana who have placed their numbers on this list. They were put there for an obvious reason. I want my privacy. If and when I want solicitations, I will make the first move. Please consider my feelings and the feelings of everyone else on the list.

Thank you,

Brian